SESSION 2

Who Should Attend?

People with Disabilities ▪ Service Providers

How do I express my needs? How can I share my desires with my partner? What do I do next? So many people find it difficult to ask questions about sex or talk to their partner about it... and this is especially true when you have a developmental disability.

This session answers some of those questions and more in an informative and matter-of-fact manner for those wanting information on sexuality, sensuality and intimacy. Note: This session will contain sexually explicit language, graphics, and instruction.
