

Career Changers (Company Confidential)

Looking for a career that allows flexibility and exceptional income potential? Have you been searching for a company that demonstrates a commitment to diversity and giving back to the community?

A career as a financial representative can give you the independence you are looking for, while having the extensive resources of our company available to you.

Some successful financial representatives with our company's Midtown Manhattan office have made the move to build their own practice at the earlier stages of their career. Others were more established and seeking a more empowered role.

Career Description:

Financial Representatives and Advisors:

- Our financial representatives provide comprehensive financial planning to help meet a variety of personal and business needs, including asset and income protection, investment and advisory services, trust services, education funding, retirement solutions, estate planning, and employee and executive benefits.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution.
- Strong interpersonal and relationship building skills.
- Highly motivated.
- History of personal / professional success.
- Prior financial services experience not needed – extensive training platform provided.
