Bishop Kee Sloan
XI Bishop of Alabama

November 13-14 at Gray Center

Cost: $120/135 (double/single) $45 (day only)
Please register by November 1

Kee Sloan is the 11th bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Alabama – elected in January 2008 as Suffragan and becoming Diocesan in January 2012. Formerly from the Diocese of Mississippi, Bishop Sloan served at St. Peter's, Oxford; All Saints', Grenada; Church of the Incarnation, West Point; Holy Cross, Olive Branch; and St. Timothy's, Southaven.

In both dioceses, Bishop Sloan has been involved with Special Session Camp programs and served on numerous medical mission trips to Honduras. In the larger Church, he has been a member of the General Convention Committee on Liturgy and Music, and the Standing Commission for Liturgy and Music.

He has been married to Tina Brown Sloan since 1987. They have 2 children, McKee and Mary Nell.

This event is open to everyone, both men and women.
