Questions in Visitation

1. How many should visit as a team? Two? Should they be co-ed or gender specific?
2. How does doorstop visitation and event visitation, often done as a follow-up ministry, differ from cold visits in houses door to door?
3. How will visitation teams be assigned to visit on the streets in the neighborhood? Do you go in four; two on one side, two another?
4. Are there certain days, and times of the day, for teams to make cold visits?
5. If invited in, go in, or stay outside? Why?
6. How should theological conversations be handled if asked any questions of theology?
7. What do you bring with you to give to people, or leave at their door when making cold visits, door to door in the neighborhood?
8. What is the one question you want to ask when making cold visits in the neighborhood?
9. Safety is an issue. How do we send our teams out in ways that ensure safety? We don't want or people to take risks that might put their lives in any unnecessary danger. Let's be smart.
10. How should you dress when making door to door visitation?
