

Our Movement's Leaders

The high school (ninth-twelfth grade) youth program depends on strong and healthy mentoring relationships with adults who serve from one to four years. Already passionate, well-informed and innovative, our youth lead best with the help of guiding volunteers whose life and work experience help bring youth ideas to fruition. These youth advisors help support a balanced youth ministry that keeps youth connected with the whole congregation and self-awareness and self-care.