

Our World's Religions

This program, using the Neighboring Faiths curriculum, explores world religions from a less detached view than a traditional class. We look not only at the world's variety of faith systems, but also those most prominent in our immediate communities. Cultivating interfaith relationships that have been built with community houses of worship over time, facilitators and middle school youth enjoy field trips and visiting speakers as we explore intersections and differences.