CHS Locations help serve up food and funds for hungry families

Fargo, ND, (May 8, 2015) —CHS locations across the country joined in raising $550,000 and nearly 270,000 pounds of food for hungry families through the annual CHS Harvest for Hunger food, funds and grain drive by the Country Operations division of CHS, the nation's leading farmer-owned cooperative.

Since the program's launch in 2011, more than 2.1 million dollars and 2.4 million pounds of food have been raised. Donations collected went to regional food banks.

CHS Sunflower, Grandin, CHS Agri-Valley, Grand Forks, Southwest Grain, Taylor, CHS Dakota Ag, Kindred, ND, CHS Sunprairie, Minot, ND, CHS South Central, Napoleon, CHS Lake Region, Devils Lake, CHS Garrison, CHS Dakota Prairie, Edgeley, CHS, Milton, & CHS Drayton held numerous fund raisers to help raise food and funds.

"Giving back to the communities in which we live and work is a core value for us. We're so proud of our employees, customers and partners who contributed to help feed hungry families through CHS Harvest for Hunger. It's exciting to be part of this effort and see how much our communities care about those in need," says Carl Younce, VP, Northland Region, Country Operations. CHS locations in more than 300 communities participated in this annual event.

In addition, CHS Country Operations boosted donations to CHS Harvest for Hunger through additional contributions to the Great Plains Food Bank, Fargo, ND which serves to help the local communities and neighbors.
