

My Baby & Me

Preparing for a new baby and worried about how your toddler or child will handle it? There is a solution!

In this engaging, fun workshop we'll make your child feel special and get him or her excited about their role as big brother or sister. Everyone will play games, sing songs, learn a few signs, enjoy a story time and make a special craft. You'll also receive simple tips to help you promote positive sibling relationships when you return home.
