

Wood Badge 2013

November 1, 2012

Listening to Scouters across Council many think an invitation is required to attend Wood Badge, if that is the case please accept out personal invitation. Wood Badge training is open to any Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity or Venturing Scouter who has completed basic training and meet the “Trained” requirements for their registered position in their Unit.

Wood Badge is Scouting’s premier advanced leadership training. The Training is based on 5 central themes:

- 1) Living the Values
- 2) Bringing the Vision to Life
- 3) Models for Success
- 4) Tools of the Trade
- 5) Leading to Make a Difference

Bryan Wendell, Senior Editor of Scouting Magazine is Blogging at Bryan on Scouting on the Scouting Magazine web page. He attended Wood Badge at Philmont last summer and has been blogging Wood Badge Wednesdays, where he relates his experience, please check it out. If you have any questions contact Gerry Myers, Course Director, thepamyers@msn.com and we will get you an answer.

WOOD BADGE SPECIALS:

The Training Committee in conjunction with Unami Lodge announces a special offer to Arrowmen wishing to attend Wood Badge, Arrowmen will be an extended a $50 discount if they attend two Lodge Service weekends prior to the Course, Please notify us upon Registration.

GIVE THE GIFT OF WOODBADGE

Wondering what to give your fellow Scouter for the Holidays? Units, wondering how to show appreciation to their leaders? Give the gift of Wood Badge. In order to help you we are offering a limited edition Wood Badge Gift Certificate at a discounted fee of $225.00 if paid in full by December 15, 2012.

Wood Badge 2013

November 1, 2012

REGISTRATION IS NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE AT COLBSA for the convenience of Scouters who wish to reserve their spot or start monthly payments toward their $250.00 course fee. Camperships may be available, don't let the cost deter you.

The course dates are in 2013 are September 7,8, 9 and Oct 12,13, 14, one must attend all sessions to be Certified.

Wood Badge Staffers will be at University of Scouting, and other council activities to recruit and answer your questions. Our goal is to have a full course of 48 participants, fully paid by June first.

If you have any Questions you can contact Gerry Myers, thepamyers@msn.com or home phone 610-539-7708.

