

C. O. L. W. I. S. CRADLE OF LIBERTY WOMEN IN SCOUTING

Let's Play Outside!

Saturday, April 6, 9 AM – 4 PM

$10, BYO Lunch • Camp Hart

One-Day Women in Scouting FUN Event

Come outside for a fun day to learn camping skills and Scouting traditions

Spend a day doing the things Scouts do:

- Shooting
- Geocaching
- Building Fires
- Cooking
- Setting up Tents
- Singing Songs

You'll have a chance to ask questions about:

- Opportunities for women in Boy Scouting
- Where to get training
- How to become a leader or commissioner
- What Venturing is all about and how to support girls in this Scouting program
- How to be comfortable and confident in the outdoors!

Ladies, are YOU on this list?

Cub Scout Moms, Aunts, Grandmoms
Pack Trainers and Pack Committee Members
Cub Day Camp Volunteers
Cub and Webelos Leaders
Boy Scout Moms, Aunts, Grandmoms
Assistant Scoutmasters and Scoutmasters
Troop Committee Members
Scout Camp Staff
Scouting Professionals
Venturers
Venturing Advisors and Associates
Venturing Committee Chairs
District Committee Members
Unit Commissioners
Moms of Graduated Webelos or Scouts

Whether you've trekked 50 miles or never camped...
We all have something to offer each other!

Cradle of Liberty Women in Scouting (COLWIS) was formed to encourage women to get to know each other, to build up Scouting skills and knowledge, and increase the participation women and Venturing girls in the wide world of opportunities in the BSA.

Sounds Great! How do I join the fun?

- 1 – send an info request to COLWomenInScouting@gmail.com
- 2 -- LIKE our Facebook Page to get updates at facebook.com/COLWIS
- 3 – Look for our Event on the COLBSA website
