

Road to Emmaus

Two of Jesus' friends were walking from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They were very sad. Jesus had died. They had hoped he would be king.

"Why did Jesus have to die?" they said. Then someone came and walked with them. He told them why Jesus died.

When they reached the house they asked the man to stay with them. Standing behind the table, the man took the bread, raised it up and blessed it. He broke it and gave it to them.

They then knew he was Jesus. Jesus left and the two men couldn't help but go back to Jerusalem to tell the disciples. "Jesus is alive! He is risen! The Lord is risen indeed!"

CHILDREN

Wondering Questions

- I wonder how Jesus friends felt when Jesus died?...
- I wonder how they knew Jesus was alive? Or how they knew the person was Jesus?...
- I wonder what it felt like to recognize Jesus breaking the bread...
- I wonder if you have ever been close to the bread like this?...
- I wonder how it feels to know Jesus is alive?...
- I wonder what it was like to tell others that Jesus is alive?...