

Job Description:

Rosh Beit Midrash (Principal) and B'nei Mitzvah Coordinator

Beth Chaim Congregation, a progressive, independent 260-family congregation in Danville, CA is looking for a dynamic, innovative, full-time Jewish Educator to engage and excite our Beit Midrash students and parents.

We are looking for someone to partner with Rabbi Dan Goldblatt in this spiritual endeavor of teaching the joys of being Jewish to the families of our community.

We currently have a strong Sunday and one-weekday based program that includes a core program together with chugim (electives such as Wrestling with Talmud led by a local attorney, Environmental Learning through tending to our community garden, Jewish and Israeli Culinary Skills with a local Israeli restaurateur, in addition to Music, Drama, etc.)

We are looking for someone who is current with some of the compelling new experiential learning approaches to supplementary Jewish education and is willing to enhance our program with your excitement and passion.

We have an extraordinary B'nei Mitzvah journey in place and would like someone who, as Educator, will also participate in and coordinate this effort.

The person in this position will supervise and mentor a teaching staff of approximately seven part-time employees. We have a part-time School Administrative Assistant who will assist with administrative tasks for this position.

We are seeking someone with a minimum of a BS or BA degree or equivalent, and are intending to fill the position by the first week in August. Salary and benefits will be commensurate with background and skills of the applicant.

Interested candidates should submit a resume and cover letter to Beth Chaim Congregation admin@bethchaim.com.
