Holiday Programs for Children and Families at Staatsburgh State Historic Site

Holiday Whodunit

Sundays, December 1 - December 29, 2013

From 1pm - 4pm (Arrive before 3:30)

Join us for the Holiday Whodunit, a one-hour, interactive “history mystery” for children and families. Go back over 100 years to a December weekend when Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish is visiting Staatsburgh. Her new hat goes missing and no one can find it! Where did it go? Who has seen it? We need your help! Come interview the servants and the guests (our costumed interpreters) in order to solve the mystery. All children who submit a guess as to “whodunit” will be entered in a drawing for a prize awarded at the end of the year, when we reveal who really dunit!

Free with site admission ($8 Adults / $6 Seniors)
Children 12 and under are free

Mistletoe Mouse Returns!

Make your own Mistletoe Mouse House
Hands-on Workshop for children 6-12 years

Saturday, December 21st, 2-3:30pm and Friday, December 27th, 10:30-12pm

Each holiday season, children enjoy searching out the houses of Mistletoe Mouse tucked into various rooms in the mansion. Mistletoe Mouse returns this season, and we are offering two hands-on workshops during the school break, in which kids ages 6 - 12 can make their own Mistletoe Mouse houses out of boxes and various craft materials. Parent or guardian must accompany child; $5 fee per child. Reservations strongly recommended: (845) 889-8851
