

What We Do

- Operate the Friends' Used Book Shop
- Support the Summer Reading Program
- Provide materials and services to the library that are not included in the regular budget
- Raise money through book and bake sales, raffle baskets, and events
- Raise money for matching grant programs
- Advocate for legislation that benefits libraries
- Highlight the library's role in enhancing the community
- Promote reading, literacy, and cultural activities in the community

A few of the ways the Friends helped the Wallkill Public Library in 2015:

- Purchased a PS4 game system along with controllers, games and chargers
- Funded museum passes/memberships, including: Museum Village, Mid Hudson Children's Museum, and Storm King Art Center Museum Membership
- Supported the Summer Reading Program by funding performer, Flow Circus, and Bouncy House for SRP Finale
- Provided gift cards and other items to be used as prizes for various contests
- Purchased wish list items for the Quilters Group
- Provided Sunshine Fund items, including:
 - Gift for Eagle Scout whose project involved improvements to the library lawn
 - Farewell gifts for employees as they departed the library
 - Refreshments and treats for various receptions: Love Your Library month, budget vote, Halloween, holiday cheer
 - Donation to Yoga on Wallkill for staff holiday gathering

FRIENDS of the Wallkill Public Library

Mission Statement

The Friends of the Wallkill Public Library advocate for and support the library.

We engage in a variety of fundraising and volunteer efforts to help sustain library programs and activities.

We serve as a link between the library and the community.

Friends' Used Book Shop

Located on the corner of Bridge Street and Park Avenue, our shop houses thousands of used books at rock-bottom prices from all genres. Proceeds allow the Friends to help fund the needs of the library.

We accept donations of gently used books, too!

Call us at 845-857-9767

We're open:

Thursday, 3 - 7 pm

Friday, 11 am - 3 pm

Saturday, 10 am - 2 pm

We're looking for a few good FRIENDS!
