

Articles for the Net - September 2015

ECW Annual Meeting will be held during Parish Life Day, November 21, 2015. The meeting will include a guest speaker, Jessica Finan, executive director of the Home of the Brave - Women, and a brief business meeting with election of the Financial Coordinator (treasurer). There will be a drawing for door prizes. In order to attend this important meeting, you must register for Parish Life Day and indicate the ECW Annual Meeting as your afternoon workshop choice.

ECW Annual Outreach Project: This year the ECW is collecting items for the Home of the Brave - Women. This facility, located in Milford, DE provides transitional housing food and security for homeless women veterans. The program assists women with employment, counseling, access to healthcare, transportation and locating affordable housing. The facility was established in 2014, and serves women and their children. Items needed for the house: laundry soap, dishwasher detergent, cleaning supplies, toilet paper, paper towels. Personal supplies - full sizes: shampoo, conditioner, shower soap, deodorant, disposable razors. Clothing - women's and children's underwear, socks, hats, gloves, scarves. The ECW will collect all items at the ECW table at Parish Life Day.