

The Urban Way of the Cross: Jesus: me, thee and the world

Join us as we journey through the streets of Wilmington on Good Friday, March 25, filled with prayer and spirituals. Begin at the corner of N. Market Street and Concord Avenue at 3:15 p.m. and end at Brandywine United Methodist Church at 2200 N. Market Street at 4:15 PM where there will be time to place your prayers on the Cross. Except for the station at Brandywine United Methodist Church, all the stations will be held outdoors.

The Stations:

Jesus is condemned to die	N. Market and Concord Avenue
Jesus takes up his cross	L.I. Redding Plaza (Concord Avenue)
Jesus falls the first time	N. West and Concord Avenue
Jesus meets His Mother	N. Washington and Concord Avenue
The Cross is laid on Simon of Cyrene	23 rd and Washington
Jesus and the women of Jerusalem	24 th and Tatnall
The Crucifixion	24 th and N. Market Street
Jesus is laid in the tomb	Brandywine United Methodist Church

The Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew & Matthew (SsAM)
Music by The SsAM Adult Choir and all of you
Meditations by Bebe Coker, Prayers by Christina Lee

302-656-6628 or www.ssam.org