

Peacemaking by the People, Not the Politicians

See Jewish, Christian, and Muslim middle school students from Israel make music together in the Peace Drums Steel Band. Under the direction of UD Music Professor Harvey Price, the band will launch its U.S. Concert Tour at Cab Calloway School for the Arts on Wednesday, April 13 at 7:30 p.m. The Jewish students attend the Leo Baeck School in Haifa, Israel, and the Christian and Muslim students attend the Mar Elias School in Ibillin, Israel.

Here the story of this interfaith peacemaking effort and celebrate what this unique ensemble has accomplished in making music and forming friendships across religious and ethnic lines. The concert is free. Donations will be received.
