

It's a Road Trip to Washington, D.C.

Saturday, October 17th

We hit the road on Saturday, October 17th for a special tour of the National Cathedral, including midday worship.

Afterwards, we enjoy a catered box lunch as our bus takes us to our 2nd stop on Pennsylvania Avenue – to visit the Newseum!

Did You Know The Cathedral...?

- ◆ is an Episcopal cathedral, officially the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul?
- ◆ was the location of the Reverend Martin Luther King Jr's last Sunday sermon?
- ◆ has numerous gargoyles and grotesques – including one of Darth Vader?
- ◆ receives no funding from the government, but only from private sources?
- ◆ high altar is made of stone from Solomon's Quarry in Jerusalem?
- ◆ is the sixth largest in the world, second largest in the U.S.?
- ◆ was under construction for most of the Twentieth Century?
- ◆ has a moon rock brought back by Apollo 11 astronauts in one of the windows?
- ◆ apex is the highest point in Washington ?
- ◆ has over 200 stained glass windows?

The Newseum (the Museum of News and the Free Press) highlights include:

Dramatic atrium, including a suspended news helicopter ● 4-D time travel movie in a state-of-the-art theater ● Gallery of every Pulitzer Prize photo since 1942 ● One of the world's largest displays of sections of the Berlin Wall ● The best view of the U.S. Capitol, six stories above historic Pennsylvania Ave. ● 31-foot section of the World Trade Center's North Tower broadcast antenna ● Theaters featuring documentaries on sports, news and politics ● Today's Front Pages Gallery, featuring daily front pages from around the world ● 90-foot-long Video Wall showing historic news broadcasts and special programming ● HP New Media Gallery, The Ultimate Interactive Experience ● 36-foot-tall, 27,000-lb. Journalists Memorial ● Interactive Newsroom

Our deluxe coach will depart the Saint David's parking lot at 8:00 am and return at 6:30 pm. Space is limited, so contact Pat Van-Catledge (playerqueen@aol.com) for tickets ASAP.

Total cost of $75 includes your round trip transport to D.C., admission to both the Cathedral and the Newseum, and a boxed lunch from the Cathedral caterers.

