

Winnsboro Lions Present Awards

At a recent meeting of the Winnsboro Lions Club new officers were inducted and several Lions were honored. Lion of the Year was presented to Don Walnock. Lion Paul Dove was inducted as the new club president and also will be serving as the incoming Second Vice District Governor for District 32D. The club also named their new scholarship recipient, Ms. Bacarri Byrd. On hand with the club to present these honors were Vice Council Chair Charlene Frye, and 32D Vice District Governor David Dority.

Pictured: Photo shows the following, from left to right: Outgoing Lion President Gene Clemens; Lion of the Year Don Walnock; Membership Chair Pam Laird; Treasurer Teresa Reed; scholarship recipient Bacarri Byrd; Vice Council Chair Charlene Frye; Installer R. E. Patrick, Jr.; Lions MD 32-D Vice District Governor David Dority; and incoming Winnsboro Lions President Paul Dove. Lion Dove will also serve as MD 32-D Second Vice District Governor for 2014-2015.

Pictured 2: Winnsboro Lions recognized a Fairfield Central 2014 graduate, Bacarri Byrd, with the club's annual scholarship award. Ms. Byrd plans to attend Coker College and major in mass communications. Outgoing President Gene Clemens made the presentation.