

How to download your free race photos from the =PR= Flickr page

To download an individual Flickr photo, simply click on the image and it will take you to its own photo page. Once there select the icon on the right with three dots.

A window will come up where you'll be able to select the size you wish to download. Choose the size you want and click download.

