

With great weather and close to 300 entries in the 7th Annual Royals Garage Car Show, this year benefiting the all-volunteer Lakeville Hose Company, this past Sunday at Lime Rock was a fun, rip-roaring success.

Here's the link to more than 80 photos from the day, and below are photos from the awards presentation of the four winners of People's Pick, Veterans Vote, Skip's Selection and Royals Crown.

Thanks to all who brought their tremendous cars, and to all the spectators who came to enjoy.

Dean Cusano was the People's Pick winner with his 1984 Jaguar XJS, one of just a handful of existing factory prototypes from the time. That's J.R. Royals on the right

Bruce Martin accepts the Veterans Vote trophy from Victoria Royals for his 1966 Ford Fairlane 500, with a 289. Martin has owned the car since new!

Kerry Washay of Torrington talks a bit about his perfect 1959 Edsel Ranger Station Wagon with Skip Barber as Washay accepts the Skip's Selection trophy

Winning the Royals Crown -- you could say it's the equivalent of Best of Show -- was this stellar 1934 Ford Cabriolet, owned by Ron & Joan Liska

See you at IMSA in July!
