Montgomery College WDCE Nonprofit Leadership Institute Training Seminar April 2011

Montgomery College Workforce Development and Continuing Education announces that applications are now being accepted for the Spring 2011 Nonprofit Leadership Institute. This unique, five-day workshop is designed to train emerging leaders in the nonprofit community. Emerging leaders include new executive directors, program directors and administrators, outstanding staff, volunteers or board members.

While the Nonprofit Leadership Institute has been offered in previous years, the Spring 2011 program has been reconfigured to better address the challenges that nonprofits are facing in this difficult economic climate.

During this 5-day intensive interactive training, participants will:

- Learn effective leadership skills
- Understand mission fulfillment and program design
- Gain awareness of community resources through board development, business and volunteer connections, and fundraising strategies
- Understand finance fundamentals, and collaboration and communication
- Gain knowledge of results based accountability in measuring impact

The Nonprofit Leadership Institute runs April 5, 6, 7, 12, and 13, from 8:30 AM -4:00 PM at the Gaithersburg Business Training Center. The registration fee for this program is $50.00 and space is limited.

The application deadline is January 31, 2011.
