Mill Neck Organization Proud Recipient of LIBDC Award

Since 1969, the Long Island Business Development Council (LIBDC), whose members include leaders in business and government, has strived to promote Long Island's economic development by assisting with local business expansion and new job growth. At the Council's recent annual conference, their 2014 Sustainability Award was presented to the Mill Neck Family of Organizations. Mill Neck's President and CEO Michael F. Killian and Director of Advancement Nancy Leghart proudly accepted the award in recognition of their organization's commitment to enhancing the quality of life for Long Islanders who are Deaf or have other special needs.

For over 6 decades, the Mill Neck Family of Organizations has been assisting individuals who are Deaf, hard of hearing or have other special needs, via quality, innovative programs and services. The recognition by the LIBDC is both appreciated and rewarding.

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations, which includes Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, founded in 1947 by Lutheran Friends of the Deaf, the Mill Neck Manor Early Childhood Center, Mill Neck Services, Mill Neck Audiology, Mill Neck Interpreter Service and Lutheran Friends of the Deaf. The Mill Neck Family of Organizations is dedicated to serving individuals who are Deaf, hard of hearing and/or have other special needs through educational, vocational and spiritual programs and services.
