

From the Stanford-educated authors of Mister Lemur's Train of Thought

"HE FELL IN LOVE WITH WRITING... ...& WROTE HIS OWN EBOOK!"

Our team of authors, musicians, teachers and curriculum experts set out to create a writing camp that turns the notion of "writing camp" on its formerly stuffy head.

Lessons are delivered as songs. Campers publish their own eBooks.

New writing skills are practiced by writing rap songs.

Did we accomplish our goal? We think so. But don't take our word for it. Watch the video on AIWCamp.com and see for yourself what Adventures in Writing Camp can do for YOUR young writers.

THERE IS VERY LITTLE “TYPICAL” ABOUT A DAY AT ADVENTURES IN WRITING CAMP.

“I applaud you for designing such a wonderful summer program focusing on writing in such an exciting way. Writing should be fun and magical, but it isn’t always taught that way. Thank you!”

- Sue McBride, Parent
- San Jose, CA

“Thank you for your fun and creative approach to a challenging and highly important skill! I love the music aspect of your program, very subtle but powerful! The people in your organization were all dynamite!”

- Parent, Las Vegas, NV

EASTBAY • NORTHBAY • PENINSULA • SOUTHBAY • ORANGE COUNTY • DIAMOND BAR • LAS VEGAS • RENO

Sure-like other top summer programs-we run weekdays from 9:00 am through 3:00 pm, with extended care available.

But as far as what happens between 9 am and 3 pm? Anything but typical.

Camp opens and closes with an energetic assembly, and throughout the day you are learning without even realizing you are learning. Games, borrowed from improvisational theater, develop brainstorming skills. Music brings Common-Core aligned writing instruction to life. Credentialed teachers work with you to create eBooks on tablets... using an app so simple even an adult can use it.

All the while, you will interact with exceptional teachers and high-energy counselors. Our counselors are-dare we say-typically college students (in either masters or undergraduate programs) who are embarking on teaching careers.

We target a student to staff ratio of 7:1 (with a max of 10:1) to ensure your writing development receives consistent personal attention throughout the journey. You will move through the day with your “Troop” (other campers in your grade level), making new friends and receiving instruction customized to your grade level. It’s all designed to give you a “leg up” in the coming year.
