

GPC Minutes- November 3, 2015

Attendees:

Jennifer Ray Beckman, Karen McFadden, Ann Shipley, Liz Koshgerian, Jeanne Czubaroff, Lori Knox, Kim Hynes, Keri Morrison

Fundraiser Auction:

Auction is on Friday, November 13th. Ticket sales continue. Individuals can purchase tickets through Square online. Everyone is encouraged to attend. A portion of your ticket price is tax deductible.

Communication Issues:

It was decided more communication should be given on Kids Stuff Books. Next year a form/ tab will be sent for parents to check whether they want book or not. This will hopefully eliminate some confusion. The sales decreased 50% from last year but still earned the committee in excess of $500.00.

Also the Parent representatives need to copy their teachers on the GPC minutes. The Minutes email will bullet point highlights.

Harvest Fair:

The event was a success and not too expensive. Next year we will seek to limit it to two hours. Mimi Akers will clear with Mimi Blackwell.

Dues: There are only 27 families who have not sent their dues. Are you one of these? Dues can be sent in via backpack. Our goal is 100%.

Restaurant Night: There will be three events in the spring. The restaurants include: Panera, Iron Hill and the Pour House.

Teacher Appreciation:

The GPC will provide lunch to the Staff on January 19th and 20th. We will coordinate at the January 11th meeting or sooner.

Bookfair: Lori Knox, Kim Hynes and Jeanne Czubaroff volunteered to oversee. The event will take place in the Spring. Mimi Ackers will assist in getting titles from the Teachers.

Mark Your Calendars:

December's Meeting will be a Fun Night! Please bring an appetizer/ covered dish on Thursday, December 10th to Jeanne Czubaroff's House. Directions will be sent out closer to the Date.
