

PATTY KATZ

Patty is an advocate for individuals in recovery. Her passion for recovery led her to co-found Hands Across the Bridge, now the largest National Recovery Month event west of the Mississippi, with more than 3,000 people attending. Attendees include, local elected officials, faith-based leaders, recovery community organizations, allied service providers and thousands of people from the recovery community in WA and OR.

"Patty has been an inspiration to all who have come in contact with her. She has worked long and hard for the rights of those in recovery. She is an example of what positive impact one person can have when advocating for those in recovery. Lifeline has always been proud to work alongside Patty to advocate for those in recovery in our community." Jared Sanford, CEO

BILL AND VICKY SMITH

Pastors Bill and Vicky Smith have a passion to see people in our community restored from the insanity of addiction. Men. Women. Youth. Families. For nearly 10 years they have been there for hundreds of men and women at their lowest. When folks have hit their absolute bottom they help show them their way to God, who is the way out of the darkness. Bill and Vicky offer a path forward and love with no judgment.

"Pastor Bill and Vicky Smith have been champions in our community for those in recovery from addiction. Their tireless effort has helped many of Lifeline's former and current clients stay on the road to long term recovery. Lifeline is grateful to have a partnership with the Pastor Bill and Vicky Smith and Grace Ministries." Jared Sanford, CEO
