

Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Lazowski

Studying the Book of Hosea, a weekly series with Rabbi Lazowski

Tuesdays November 3 to December 1

12:00 noon

At the offices of Laz Parking, 15 Lewis Street on the 5th floor (Free lunch. Parking in the Trumbull on the Park garage will be validated. The entrance is at about 88 Trumbull St. near Salute Restaurant and is right down the block from the Laz office.)

Coffee and Lunch will be served.

Please RSVP to Kate Goldman as soon as possible so we can have the proper amount of food.

kate@emanuelsynagogue.org or 408-425-0166

Don't miss this wonderful learning opportunity!

Dr. Philip Lazowski, Rabbi, was born in 1930 near Vilna in Bielice, Poland (now Belarus). He arrived in Brooklyn, New York in 1947 after surviving the Holocaust by hiding for almost 3 years in the White Russian woods. He was ordained as Rabbi by the Academy of Higher Jewish Learning in 1962 and awarded his Doctorate of Jewish Literature from Jewish Teachers Seminary and People's University in 1970. He was awarded his Doctorate by the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1985. Rabbi Lazowski has authored and published six books and is married to Ruth (Rabinowitz) Lazowski, and they reside in Bloomfield, Connecticut. They are blessed with three sons, Barry, Alan and David; their wives Cynthia, Marcia and Dana and their seven grandchildren.

