

Nuclear Power, Pilgrim, and Poetry:

An afternoon with

HARVEY WASSERMAN

Reknowned no nuclear journalist, activist, organizer

Harvey Wasserman helped coin the phrase “No Nukes” in 1974 and has been fighting nuclear reactors around the world ever since. His “Solartopian” vision for a totally green-powered Earth was introduced in 2005 by Robert F. Kennedy Jr. He is a Voting Member of Greenpeace USA and has spoken to audiences in the USA, Europe and Asia. Mr. Wasserman will speak on nuclear power as dangerous as climate change and make a clarion call to shut Pilgrim now.

Sunday, August 16, 2015

3:00-5:00 PM

Wellfleet Council on Aging

715 Old Kings Highway, Wellfleet, MA

Special guest Marge Piercy will read her two powerful poems on the dangers of Pilgrim, "One of the expendables" and "We can't see that wind".

Sponsored by Cape Downwinders and Down Cape Downwinders

Cosponsors: Pilgrim Coalition, Pilgrim Watch, Cape Cod Bay Watch, 350MA Cape and Islands, Association to Preserve Cape Cod, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, MA Downwinders, On Behalf of Planet Earth, Boston Downwinders, No More Fukushimas, Citizen Awareness Network, Fellowship of Reconciliation

For more information, contact Diane Turco at tturco@comcast.net/508-776-3132 or Candace Perry at (508)349-1922