EXPLORING EARLY CELTIC CHRISTIANITY:

TO WALK AGAIN WITH THE MOON AND THE STARS

A Lenten Retreat

God was present to the early Celts in images, signs, in poetry, art, in the sacred and the secular, and in the mysterious stories of the saints. The feminine principle was strong, and there was a sense of God's immediacy in daily life. This natural mysticism invites us to embark on a spiritual journey of our own.

Our retreat leader: We welcome back the very popular Barbara B. Prendergast who brought us the luminosity of Hildegard of Bingen two years ago! Barbara has traveled to many Celtic lands including Wales, Cornwall, Ireland, Scotland, and the island of Iona. She received her master's degree in theology from Marquette University and a certificate in spiritual direction from Creighton University. Barbara, who lives in Milwaukee, is active as a spiritual director and as a member of Contemplative Outreach.

Kettlewood Retreats invites you to this Lenten retreat at Cedar Valley. Come join us in the countryside of the Kettle Moraine on 100 spectacular acres (an outdoor labyrinth too!) near West Bend. The noon meal is included.
