

SUPPLEMENTAL WINE LIST

The wines listed below, though not available for tasting, are recommended for purchase. All the wines are outstanding and most are premium priced. All are highly rated by well-known wine critics. The list is incomplete as they represent a tiny portion of the ever expanding Kosher wine industry. Kosher wines are consistently winning awards at international wine competitions and are being produced in every major wine region of the world. The wines listed below are mostly not mevushal and should be handled accordingly.

Country of origin	Vitner	Variety	Price
France	Chateau Moulin Roche	Bordeaux Produced from the same terrior as Chateaux Leovelle Roche with same elegance	$60.00
	Chateneaneuf du Pape	Rhone The standard for Rhone Valley Wines. Rich in fruit Superb nose. Elegant on the palate	$70.00
	Chateau Rollan De Buy	Bordeaux -well balanced can be drunk now or laid down for aging	$62.00
Israel	Matar	Cumulus Has a soft texture and hint of light spice.	$39.00
	Domaine Du Castel	Blanc du Castel -rated 90 by wine enthusiast	$49.00
		Petit Castel -excellent dry red	$49.00
	Recanati	Reserve Cabernet -full bodied wine	$27.00
	Segal's	Unfiltered Cabernet -big bold wine	$70.00
	Teperberg	Essnce Cabernet -rich,heavy body with outstanding ripe fruit flavor	$34.00
	Tishbi Yarden	Cabernet Franc-Estate reserve Leading Israeli producer -all wines are fine quality. Recommend Cab, Merlot & Pinot Noir	$35.00 Mid to upper twenties
Italy	Signe	Brunello -heavy tannins. 2005 vintage can be drunk now or laid down for add'tl aging	$47.00
Spain	Capcanes	Peraj Ha'abib -blend of Cabernet, Grenache and Carrigan grapes. Powerful fruit flavor	$54.00

The kosher wine industry has proliferated over the last two decades, thus making it impossible to provide a complete list for selection. Indeed new wines, from around the world continue to appear on the scene. If you have a particular favorite that you do not see listed please inquire. More than likely we can get it for you.