December 17-18, 2012

Washington, DC

For more information, contact Cema Siegel at csiegel@gistfunders.org.

Assessing the new policy and funding environment that will be created after the 2012 elections will be critical as we build compelling and successful agendas for advancing our work. The Grantmakers Income Security Taskforce (GIST), Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families (GCYF), and Grantmakers In Health (GIH), invite you to attend Post-Election Philanthropy: Votes, Values, and Vision on December 17-18, 2012 in Washington, DC. This timely briefing will help inform grantmakers about the outcomes of the national, state and local elections and what it suggests in terms of opportunities and challenges for the short-and medium-term, and provide a forum for funders to identify strategies for individual and collective action. This meeting is free of charge and open to foundation representatives and philanthropic advisors only. A detailed agenda will be available shortly.

As always, please feel free to share this invitation with other funders and philanthropic advisors who might be interested in attending. We hope to see you in December!

Sincerely,

Mike Laracy
