

Community Book Club Series

April 9, 2016 | 4:30pm – 5:00pm
National Ability Center Ranch

FREE Family Event!

Come join the delightful author Katie Mullaly as she reads

“The Land of AND”

Katie Mullaly, Author

As a lover of rhyme, rhythm and reason, Katie continues to share with others her passion for teaching, creating greater awareness and living a conscious life through these children’s books.

She has spent many years as a teacher of all things fun. From geology to mountain biking and skiing to karate, her love of seeing kids, and adults, develop new skills and understanding of the world around them continues.

Immediately Following the Event will be the National Ability Center’s Parents Night Out/ Kids Fun In!***

*For a suggested donation of $10/person

"The story will take you to a place where magical things happen when you open your heart to everyone."

"My 11-year-old has been talking at school and with friends about bullying. This book helped her with examples of how to include other kinds of kids into her circle of friends."
