

Thunderland by Brandon Massey

Genre: Paranormal Suspense/Horror

Plot Synopsis: After a storm ravages his neighborhood, Jason Brooks wakes to discover that his parents are like new people. His mom no longer drinks and his dad is more interested in spending time with him. Furthermore, shy Jason is now making friends. However, all is not perfect. Jason starts to experience terrifying nightmares and threatening messages on his bathroom mirror. He discovers that an evil entity is coming... and it has its sights set on Jason.

Why I recommend the title: This story is creepy and suspenseful. The story is driven by well-developed characters and a riveting plot.

If you enjoy reading this title, then I also recommend these similar titles: Other Brandon Massey novels include The Other Brother, Don't Ever Tell and Dark Corner.
