It's Our Business to Protect Yours®

Seventy-two percent of drug users are employed—but you won't find them working at businesses with effective drug- and alcohol-free workplace programs.

According to the American Council for Drug Education, abusers are:

- 10 times more likely to miss work
- 3.6 times more likely to be involved in on-the-job accidents
- 5 times more likely to injure themselves or another in the process
- 5 times more likely to file work-comp claims
- 33 percent less productive

Come listen in as Federated Insurance discusses the ways you can protect your business from these dangerous employees.
