

Free film screening at Creative Alliance

Join Compassion & Choices Baltimore on November 14th at the Creative Alliance at the Patterson for a FREE screening of the HBO production, How To Die In Oregon, with a Q&A to follow.

In How to Die in Oregon, filmmaker Peter Richardson gently enters the lives of the terminally ill as they consider whether – and when – to end their lives by lethal overdose. Richardson examines both sides of this complex, emotionally charged issue. What emerges is a life-affirming, staggeringly powerful portrait of what it means to die with dignity.

The film is presented by Compassion & Choices Baltimore, an all-volunteer group of concerned men and women who are working to increase awareness about end-of-life choice and share information about pending legislation that will extend these options to the citizens of Maryland. Compassion & Choices is the leading nonprofit organization committed to helping everyone have the best death possible, by working across the nation to protect and expand options at the end of life.
