

Out-of-School Time Literacy Workshop

Agenda

September 25, 2015

Modern Woodmen Park

209 S Gaines St, Davenport, IA 52802

563-333-2739

Brought to you by the Iowa 21st Century Community Learning Centers, supported by the Iowa Afterschool Alliance in partnership with the Iowa Department of Education.

The Literacy Workshop will take place in conjunction with a morning Technical Assistance Meeting regarding the Fiscal Year 2016 grant competition for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers (a federal grant opportunity. For more information about 21st Century, click here). The technical assistance session will take place from 8:30 – 10:00 a.m., followed by the professional development workshop. Both the technical assistance meeting and workshop are open to all out-of-school time professionals in Iowa, both front-line staff and program directors.

- 8:30 – 10:00
- » 21CCLC FY2016 Request for Applications Technical Assistance Meeting (Open to all)
  - » Family Engagement Committee In-Person Meeting (By invitation only)
  - » Support Committee In-Person Meeting (By invitation only)

10:00 – 10:30 Welcome [Workshop begins]

Description of intended audience for each track:

- » Track 1: 21CCLC Directors and Administrators Meetings
- » Track 2: Literacy Workshops for Afterschool Program Staff

10:40 – 11:40 First Block of Sessions

Track 1: Budgeting for 21st Century Programs

Vic Jaras, Iowa Department of Education; Melissa Knepp, Davenport Community School District (Director's Session)

This session is geared at directors of 21st Century out-of-school time programs in Iowa. An overview will be provided of program budgets and expectations from a state perspective. A program perspective on budgeting will also be shared. There will be opportunity for questions and clarifications. Directors will receive a guide related to budgeting for 21st Century programs.

Track 2: How to Make the Most of Public Media Resources

Trista Peitzman, PK-12 Coordinator, Iowa Public Television

- Iowa Public Television has many resources that can help you help you connect students to literacy, from quality, educational TV programs to online resources such as PBS Learning Media, a digital database created for educators. Learn how you can access these free resources and make the most of out of school time with the students you serve.

11:40 – 12:40 Working Lunch

Plenary by Deborah Reed, PhD, Iowa Reading Research Center

- Supporting the Academic Language Demands of Math and Science: a research-based approach to how literacy can affect students' understanding of and performance in math and science competency.

12:50 – 1:50 Second Block of Sessions

Track 1: Training Your Staff to do Effective Read Alouds

Angela Cardamon and Kate McCormick, Enrichment Coaches, United Way of Central Iowa

- Two Enrichment Coaches will take you through an entire training on Read Alouds and provide tips to program directors on training staff. Participants will leave with a complete training packet that they can use with their staff.

Track 2: Intensive Tutoring & Literacy

Davenport Community School District

1:50 – 2:50 Third Block of Sessions

Track 1: Leadership – Making the Literacy Work you do More Powerful

Joe Herrity

Track 2: Integrating Vocabulary Into Programming

Angela Cardamon and Kate McCormick, Enrichment Coaches, United Way of Central Iowa

- » Find out about creative and collaborative ways to integrate vocabulary into everyday use. This session is geared at program front-line staff and a limited number of copies of the book Vocabulary Games for the Classroom by Robert Marzano and Lindsay Carleton, will be provided to participants, as well as online resources.

2:50 – 3:00 Wrap-up

3:15 – 4:30 Special Option: Walk through of Madison full-service school in Davenport CSD (optional)