

Tuesday

NIGHTS

at the MUSEUM

Where Island Tales Are Told

Every Tuesday

7 pm

May 31 – Aug 30, 2016

Each Tuesday evening will feature a different speaker and topic. Speaker dates are subject to change. Please check chincoteaguemuseum.com/programs for the most up-to-date listing of speakers.

May 31

Irene Kleckner with daughter, Monnie Terry
“Growing up Teaguer: Life on the Channel, a Tale of 3 Bridges”

June 7

Andy Linton
“Crab Pot Building Demonstration”

June 14

Bill Borges
“Beacons of Light: Assateague Lighthouse History & Beyond”

June 21

Gary Turnquist
“Historical Archaeology & the Folk Cemeteries of Chincoteague Island”

June 28

Wade Barrett
“Growing Up on the Island & Going Down-the-Bay”

July 5

Kevin McBride
“Wildlife Painting Demonstration”

July 12

Parker McMullen (CBFS) & Gretchen Knapp (NPS)
“Barrier Islands: From Formation to Flora & Fauna”

July 19

Nancy Ferguson
“Women, Wool, & Spinning: A Tale of Assateague Island”

July 26

Wayne Estes
“What It’s Like to be a Saltwater Cowboy”

August 2

David Quillen
“The Ash Wednesday Storm Through the Eyes of a 14 Year Old Boy”

August 9

Jay Cherrix
“Growing up Teaguer: Addicted to the Water & Carving”

August 16

Dino Johnson
“Showcasing a Chincoteague Memorabilia & Photo Collection”

August 23

Chip Lewis
“Life of a Waterman & Aquaculture Farmer”

August 30

Joelle Buffa
“Shorebirds of Chincoteague & Assateague”

Where: Museum of Chincoteague Island (7125 Maddox Blvd. Chincoteague, VA 23336)
Seating is limited. Doors open at 6:30.

$4 admission for adults

Free event admission for children (12 years & under), active military, & Museum Members

For questions please email info@chincoteaguemuseum.com or call 757-336-6117