

Wallops Educator Resource Center

2016 Summer PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

July 7th ELEMENTARY GLOBE – GRADES K – 4

- A FREE 1 day workshop to be held at the Educator Resource Center at Wallops.
- Introduces students to the study of Earth System Science.
- Learn how to enhance literacy skills through natural world exploration.
- Receive a free set of Elementary GLOBE Protocol book!

July 11th – 14th EARTH SCIENCE WEEK – GRADES 5-12

A series of free Workshops celebrating Earth Science Week focused on Earth Science and importance to the missions at Wallops Flight Facility will be held at the Educator Resource Center.

- Blue Marbles Matches & Lunar & Meteorite Certification
- Soil Moisture Active Passive (SMAP), Global Precipitation Management (GPM) & GLOBE Protocols
- Coastal Resilience Workshop & Field Study

August 8th – 9th NASA'S BESTS – GRADES 3-8

- Free 2 day Workshop focused on NASA's Beginning Engineering, Science and Technology
- NASA BEST brings the principles of engineering alive to younger audiences.
- Content can be used to supplement curricula.

REGISTRATION

Wallops Educator Resource Center is located on Rt. 175, Chincoteague Rd., next to the Wallops Visitors Center. For registration information or to receive a registration form, email Samuel Henry @ samuel.s.henry@nasa.gov or call, 757-824-1637.

All workshops have a 20 educator limit, so please sign up immediately!!!