Please note, if the tournament day is in a sell-out position, only the card carrying member will be allowed access free of charge.

This year's RBC Canadian Open will be played at Glen Abbey Golf Club, Oakville, ON from July 18th – 24th. CGSA member Andrew Gyba is the host Superintendent. Members attending should park in the general spectator lots, locations to be available at www.rbccanadianopen.com. Tournament shuttle buses will transport you to the main spectator gate.

This year's Canadian Pacific Women's Open will be played at Priddis Greens Golf & Country Club in Priddis, AB from August 22nd – 28th. CGSA's President, James Beebe is the host Superintendent. Members attending should park in the general spectator lots, locations to be available at <http://www.cpwomensopen.com/>. Tournament shuttle buses will transport you to the main spectator gate.

United States Golf Association (USGA) - Ground Access to all 2016 USGA Championships

Complimentary grounds admission to all USGA Championships is available to CGSA Gold card members. The spouse or guest of the CGSA Member is also granted complimentary admission to the Women's Open, Senior Open and U.S. Amateur; however; the spouse or guest is NOT granted complimentary admission to the U.S. Open.

Members are to park at the general parking at each Championship and take the complimentary shuttle to the Will Call facility.

You will need to show both a valid CGSA membership card (2016-2017) and a photo identification card to receive a complimentary admission grounds ticket. The same procedure applies for each day of the Championships that the member wishes to attend.
