

MEMBER ACCESS TO THE 2015 RBC CANADIAN OPEN

Thanks to Golf Canada, all paid CGSA members with a 2015-2016 membership card receive complimentary grounds access to the RBC Canadian Open in 2015!

2015 TICKET POLICY FOR ACCESS TO THE RBC CANADIAN OPEN

CGSA members are required to sign in at the admissions booth and present their 2015-2016 membership card and photo ID. They will then be provided with a daily pass for themselves and for their guest.

Please note, if the tournament day is in a sell-out position, only the card carrying member will be allowed access free of charge.

This year's RBC Canadian Open will be played at Glen Abbey Golf Club, Oakville, ON from July 20th - 26th, a Clublink course with Andrew Gyba as host superintendent. Members attending should park in the general spectator lots, locations to be available at www.rbccanadianopen.com. Tournament shuttle buses will transport you to the main spectator gate.

CGSA members also receive complimentary access to other National Tournaments posted on CGSA's website. For more information on the National Tournament Program, including the 2015 schedule and superintendent profiles, please visit our National Tournament page.

Remember you must have your 2015-2016 membership card for entry into the majority of all the National Tournaments so please be sure to pay your membership dues in plenty of time to assure delivery of your membership card to attend these prestigious events!
