

The Episcopal Church in Connecticut
presents
A Pilgrimage to Our Holy Land
April 10 – 22, 2016

*Under the direction of The Rt. Rev. Laura Ahrens, Bishop Suffragan
The Rev. Dr. Lisa Hahneman, Interreligious Network Facilitator Canon Iyad Qumri, Licensed Local Guide and Instructor*

Join us for what promises to be a deeply profound, spiritual pilgrimage to our Holy Land. Connect to the biblical stories of our faith as it awakens God's story within us! We will visit holy sites, learn about the lives of Christians, Muslims and Jews in this sacred land today, and create space for the Holy Spirit to stir up in us a deeper awareness of God's love as we connect to the land and people of the past and present.

Stand with believers from our three Abrahamic faiths at the Western Wall, Dome of the Rock and Church of the Holy Sepulcher

Follow the footsteps of Jesus through Bethlehem, the Jordan River, Jericho, the Judean Desert, Nazareth, Capernaum, the Sea of Galilee, Mount of Beatitudes, and back to Jerusalem

Experience those final days in Beth-Phage, Gethsemane, and Mt. Zion; walking the Way of the Cross on the Via Dolorosa, and sitting in silent reflection at the Empty Tomb

Discover present day ministries supported through the American Friends of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem at Christ Church, Nazareth and Princess Basma Center for Children with Disabilities

Total Cost:
$3,800 based on double occupancy
