

Who are our Muslim neighbors?
What do they believe?
How do extremist actions affect them?

Honest Conversations with Muslim Neighbors

Thursday, March 31st at 7 pm
Unitarian Universalist Congregation
20 Forest Street at Bedford Street, Stamford 06901

Area Muslims will share stories and address issues such as:

Communicating moderate Islam in the face of extremism
Why some girls and women wear Muslim dress, and others do not
What core beliefs in Qur'an are shared with other world religions
Cultural differences among Muslims from diverse parts of the world

American Muslims don't have all the answers.
Our panelists will respond out of their own experiences, raising issues that concern us all together.

Together, in conversation, we can promote a more peaceful world.

Sponsored by the Interfaith Council of Southwestern CT
The CT Council for Interreligious Understanding (CCIU)
The Muslim Coalition of Connecticut and Hartford Seminary