TBE Jewish Heritage Tour to Central Europe

Led by Rabbi Joshua and Mara Hammerman

July 2 – 14, 2017

Deadline to register March 3, 2017

Jewish life flourished in Central Europe for nearly a thousand years before the devastation of the Holocaust. Now it is being reborn before our eyes. On this deluxe tour, led by Rabbi Joshua and Mara Hammerman, we will explore the rich heritage of Ashkenazi Jewry while paying homage to the victims of an unfathomable hatred. We'll bear witness to the horrors of Auschwitz, the Warsaw Ghetto and Terezin, some of the most historic synagogues of Europe, while also seeing the rebirth of Jewish culture in Berlin and Krakow and other restored centers of Jewish life. Accommodations will be deluxe and Kosher food will be available. This trip is not appropriate for young children, but teenagers and college students are most welcome. Open to all TBE members and to the general public on a first come, first served basis.

$3,833 per person, $300 deposit is due Friday March 3, 2017.

Early Bird Discount: $100 off per person if you register before October 1st, 2016!
