

2015 Donations from Second Chance to Area Organizations

Merchandise

- Loaned a bar to the Walthers Art Gallery Women's Committee for their "Rye to Raphael" event
- Donated furnishings for an Out for Justice client transitioning from a shelter to independent housing
- Donated furnishings for seven Baltimore Outreach Services clients transitioning from the shelter to independent housing
- Donated appliances, furnishings and home improvement items to Mi Casa Su Casa, to equip a new behavioral health facility for reentering ex-offenders and veterans
- Donated stacking chairs to Mi Casa Su Casa for group therapy sessions for re-entering ex-offenders with substance abuse problems
- Loaned three columns to the Laurel Mill Playhouse for use on a set
- Donated 140 Doors to Community Forklift
- Donated lumber to Laurel Mill Playhouse for renovation project
- Donated a case of small appliances and kitchen wares to Hunt Valley Presbyterian Furniture Ministry
- Donated silent auction item (jardinière) to Penn-Mar Human Services for their annual Black Tie Gala
- Donated office furniture to Heart II Heart
- Donated classroom desks to Living Classrooms
- Discounted light fixtures, furniture and building materials for new Success in Style facility
- Discounted building materials for Metro Washington DC police training facility
- Loaned furnishings for the set of MICA's "Man of Mode" production
- Provided flooring at a discount to Anne Arundel County South River High School's "Green Architecture Capstone Project."
- Donated silent auction items to two Cystic Fibrosis Foundation fundraising events
- Donated silent auction item to The Red Devils' "Wine, Women & Shoes" fundraiser to support families affected by breast cancer
- Donated office chairs to AIDS Interfaith Residential Services
- Donated silent auction item to Hunt Valley Church fundraising event
- Donated silent auction item to Hampden Family Center's 20th Anniversary Celebration
- Donated doors, windows and lumber to Indian Creek School "Tiny House" project
- Donated furnishings to SAFEAlternative, a new afterschool program for middle school-age students
- Discounted furnishings for the Sharp Dressed Man boutique's new location
- Donated 3,400 bricks to the Parks & People Foundation for their use in paving a path in the Sandtown-Winchester neighborhood
- Loaned furniture and architectural pieces to Rawlings Conservatory for art and holiday shows
- Donated refrigerator and gas stove to senior citizen-client of Men & Families Center
- Donated a refrigerator to Girls On The Run
- Loaned doors to Carroll Co. Community College theater production
- Donated silent auction item to Thomas Johnson School fundraiser

- Donated lumber on an ongoing basis to furniture-building social enterprise established by Station North Tool Library
- Donated cabinets for BookBoxes project in Southwest Baltimore sponsored by the University of Baltimore Rosenberg Center for Student Involvement
- Donated silent auction item (signed print) to St. Mary's Church of Govans
- Donated furnishings for three clients transitioning from Marian House to independent housing
- Sponsored "Freecycle" event in parking lot
- Donated bookshelves to Family League of Baltimore for an elementary school food pantry
- Donated furnishings for two clients of the Family Recovery Program transitioning from the residential program to independent housing

Event Space

- Hosted the Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care Shelter's (BARCS) Canine ... Feline ... Drink Wine fundraiser
- Hosted a monthly meeting of the Baltimore Workforce Investment Board (BWIB)
- Hosted Civic Works' "Retrofit Baltimore" workshop
- Hosted national two-day Serve the City forums
- Hosted two Teach for America training days
- Hosted organization and community meetings and provided financial support to Creating a Profound Sense of Community
- Hosted sessions of the Community College of Baltimore County's apartment maintenance course
- Hosted a 25th-year anniversary for Union Memorial's cardiac department