Quantum Influence: The Leap to Inspirational Leadership

“The key to successful leadership today is influence, not authority.” Ken Blanchard

The LEAP

Good leaders make a great difference. Great leaders are good at inspiring others to make a great difference. Your ability to lead through influence is the key to your success and impact. Stepping up and into your full Great Leader potential comes one Leap at a time. Are you ready to take the next LEAP in your leadership? Does your role or vision require you to master the art of Quantum Influence? Are you looking to elevate your ability to influence, inspire and engage others?

The CHALLENGE

We can be so focused on delivering to the needs of our organizations, our teams and our families – so stuck in the work of it all - that we leave little time or capacity to focus on investing in what we need to make the next Leap in our Leadership, the key to living our great lives doing our great work. Not doing what it takes to become an Inspirational Leader is another way we can “play small” versus “playing big” and maximizing our potential and impact.

The SOLUTION

Quantum Influence!

The Model: Maximize Yours

Executive Credibility	(EC)
	+
Emotional Quotient	(EQ)
	+
Executive Presence	(EP)
Equals	=
Quantum Influence	(QI)

The Experience:

2 full days of content, assessments, exercises and experiences designed and led by Master Executive Coach, Ann Farrell, focused on elevating Quantum Influence and includes a very special half-day EQUINE “influence” experience with horses (from the ground) with Certified Equine Coach, Janis Cooper and her beautiful herd.
