

JOIN THE LET'S GROW KIDS SPEAKERS BUREAU

Let's Grow Kids is a statewide campaign working with Vermont communities, organizations, businesses and individuals to create positive lasting change that will allow all of our children to succeed in life. By joining the Speakers Bureau, you can help us educate Vermonters about the importance of positive experiences in the first years of life.

Speakers Bureau members attend a training to incorporate personal stories into campaign messaging about child development and the Blue Ribbon Commission. Members are then scheduled to speak in their community and are supported by staff in all aspects of their presentation.

The list of dates, locations and times are listed to the right. Sign up for a training online at www.letsgrowkids.org under the Take Action tab. Questions? Contact Kelly Ault at kelly@vteca.org or 802-272-0795.
