HUBER'S BUTCHERY RELOCATES

Huber's Butchery has moved to a bigger space in Dempsey and now spans 13,000 sq ft over two floors at its new location.

There is also a 50-seat bistro that serves lunch and dinner. True to the butchery, menu items are meat-centric. Dishes include sausages (from $7.90), braised grain-fed bone-in beef short rib ($17) and Huber's dry-aged beef burger ($17.50).

A wide range of beer and wine is also available.

The variety of produce has also expanded. Special litems include Toriyama Umami Japanese Wagyu, Canadian pork from Primrose Farms and marbled Hungarian Mangalica pork. Dry-aging of meats – previously done only at its factory – can now be done on site. There is also a demonstration

There is also a demonstration kitchen for cooking classes and an outdoor playground.
