On December 8, 2015, the Senior Companions of Jackson and Clay counties came together for a time of good food, music and fellowship at their holiday in-service.

There were raffles with prizes to win, a table decorating contest (thus the brown table clothes and glitter pens), and a tasty lunch of brisket, with cheesecake for dessert. The performances by The Dicken's Carolers and the KC Variety Band soon had the guests singing along or up and dancing.

Everyone took home a bag filled with treats, rolls of wrapping paper and other goodies provided through the generosity of our Community Partners.
