

Q: How can I properly dispose of my old medications?

TCRCF area health departments each have programs that accept expired or unused medications. You may also want to check with your local pharmacist as they may know of a more convenient option for you.