Coffee Crossing Opens Second Location on National Coffee Day

Jeffersonville, Ind. (September 29, 2015) – Coffee Crossing held a grand opening on National Coffee Day, Tuesday, September 29, for their new location at 410 Patrol Road in Jeffersonville with a ribbon cutting hosted by One Southern Indiana. After 12 years in business in New Albany, Coffee Crossing saw a need for a warm atmospheric coffee shop in the ever-expanding Jeffersonville/River Ridge Commerce Center area.

Being a long time coffee drinker and patron to local coffee shops, owner Alan Butts saw this area's need for a coffee shop that could give people a great, warm place to enjoy great coffee. He hired consultants and traveled all around to trade shows to make sure that his customers would be served outstanding coffee. This is the second location for Coffee Crossing; the first located at 4212 Charlestown Road in New Albany.
